Wuesthoff Hospice Thrift Shop Re-Opens after Refurbishment

“Generous donation from Lowe’s and Christopher & Banks makes refurbishment possible”

Brevard County, FL (July 23, 2010) Wuesthoff Hospice & Palliative Care’s Thrift Shop located at 185 Barton Blvd, Rockledge, was recently refurbished after receiving generous donations from Lowe’s and Christopher & Banks at the Avenue. Lowe’s in Rockledge provided paint and supplies, while Christopher & Banks donated store merchandising, display shelving, racks, and fixtures.

“We are excited and proud of the new improvements at our Thrift Shop and invite everyone in the community to stop by and see the changes we have made and the great merchandise we have available,” said Genia Adamson, Wuesthoff Hospice Thrift Shop Supervisor.

The Thrift Shop will be celebrating a re-Grand Opening during the month of August and will feature additional sales and discounts. Operating hours have been extended to better accommodate customers who want to stop by after business hours. Extended hours of operation are 10 am to 6 pm, Monday through Friday and 9 am to 3 pm on Saturdays.

Wuesthoff Hospice & Palliative Care is a non-profit organization and all proceeds from the Thrift Shop benefit hospice patient care. The Thrift Shop gladly accepts donations of new and used items in good repair.

For anyone interested in volunteering at the Thrift Shop, call Wuesthoff Hospice Volunteer department at 321-253-2222. For information on donating items, call 321-690-6696.
